Created by Hippolyte THOMAS, Gérard's grandfather, the Gérard THOMAS estate is situated in Saint-Aubin, a winemakers' village in the south of the Côte de Beaune, in the heart of the Côte des Blancs. This 12 hectare family estate is managed by Gérard THOMAS, supported by his two daughters, Anne-Sophie and Isabelle, who represent the 4th generation of winegrowers. The vineyard, mainly planted with Chardonnay varieties, is spread over the municipalities of Saint-Aubin, Meursault, Puligny-Montrachet and Chassagne-Montrachet and produces a whole range of great white vintages.
