The MACHARD de GRAMONT estate, located in Prissey, a hamlet neighbouring Nuits-Saint-Georges, is a family vineyard managed by Arnaud Machard de Gramont and his two sons Alban and Alexis. The cellar dates from the 11th century and has a superb vaulted ceiling, which gives it a cathedral-like quality. The estate consists of 20 hectares of vineyards, which extend over almost 50 kilometres, from Chenôve, south of Dijon, to Puligny-Montrachet, south of Beaune. The estate offers more than a dozen appellations, the main ones being Aloxe-Corton, Chorey les Beaune, Nuits-Saint-Georges, Pommard, Savigny-Les-Beaune and Puligny-Montrachet.
