Domaine Robert SIRUGUE is situated in Vosne-Romanée, a village in the Côte de Nuits located half way between Dijon and Beaune and whose name is renowned the world over. In 2000, Robert Sirugue passed on his domaine to his daughter, Marie-France, and his son, Jean-Louis, who represent the 4th generation of wine growers. The vineyards, which have grown progressively, now occupy almost 12 hectares of sustainably grown vines mainly located in the Vosne-Romanée commune. The domaine produces a wine at each level of the appellation: Bourgogne, Vosne-Romanée and Chambolle-Musigny Villages, Vosne-Romanée Premier Cru and Grands Echézeaux.
